

Texas International Boat Show

ART Contest

The Texas International Boat Show will this year host a student art contest. This contest will be directed at 3rd-7th grade children and consist of painting, crayon, watercolors or drawing. The theme of the contest will be boats, boating and water sports in Corpus Christi, enabling students to showcase their artistic talents while learning more about the Corpus Christi marina, boating and water sports.

All work will be judged on creativity, skill and interpretation of the theme. Artwork will be accepted from March 1st – April 5th, Mon-Fri from 10.00am – 4.00pm at the Antonio E. Garcia Arts and Education Center with a deadline of 5.00pm on April 5th, 2010. One entry per person will be accepted.

The art exhibits will be displayed at the Texas International Boat Show from April 22nd-25th, 2010, and then at the Antonio E. Garcia Arts and Education Center.

The program is funded through the assistance of Whataburger, Valero Refining and the Texas International Boat Show.

One final winner chosen from each grade (3rd-7th) will receive enrollment in a one week Summer Art camp.
